Dr. H. L. E. Johnson, Governor 1911-19—

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY

OF THE

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS

IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

THE Society of Colonial Wars in the District of Columbia celebrated the twentieth anniversary of its organization at a dinner given in the Hotel Raleigh, Washington, D. C., on the evening of May 20, 1913.

The tables were arranged in gridiron form, with red and white floral decorations, in harmony with the colors of the Society's banner—the Cross of St. George—a red cross on a white field.

Dr. H. L. E. Johnson, Governor of the Society, presided and introduced the speakers, who were: U. S. Senator Henry A. duPont, Deputy-Governor, representing the Delaware Society; Mr. Robert Munro Boyd, Jr., Lieutenant-Governor of the New Jersey Society; Mr. Robert Burton, Historian of the Maryland Society, and Commodore Richard G. Davenport, U. S. N. (retired), the only surviving charter member of the District of Columbia Society in affiliation since its formation.

An historical review of the Society's transactions from its organization was read by the Historian, Mr. Caleb C. Magruder, Jr.

Letters expressive of regret on account of enforced absence were received from the British Ambassador, Sir Cecil Spring-Rice; Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood, Chief of Staff, U. S. A.; Mr. Howland Pell, Governor-General of the New York Society; Prof. William Libbey, Governor of the New Jersey Society; Dr. Henry Barton Jacobs, Governor of the Maryland Society; Mr. Edward G. Bradford, Governor of the Delaware Society; Mr. Richard McC. Cadwalader, Governor of the Pennsylvania Society; Col. William W. Ladd, Governor of the New York Society, and Mr. George Norbury Mackenzie, Registrar-General of the Maryland Society.

Guests of Governor Johnson were: U. S. Senator Jacob H. Gallinger, U. S. Senator Theodore E. Burton, Capt.

William J. Glasgow, U. S. A.; Hon. Henry L. West and Mr. Dickinson Jewett.

The out-of-town guests of the Society were entertained by Governor Johnson as his house guests at the University Club.

Other guests were: Rev. Wm. Tayloe Snyder, Dr. J. B. G. Custis, Jr., Mr. Basil Mies, Commander John H. Moore, U. S. N. (retired), Mr. Charles H. Wilcox, and Mr. C. A. M. Wells.

The following members subscribed to the dinner: Mr. William V. Cox, Mr. Thomas Hyde, Col. Frederick C. Bryan, Mr. Caleb C. Magruder, Jr., Mr. Walter C. Clephane, Dr. H. L. E. Johnson, Mr. J. Burr Johnson, Rev. Roland C. Smith, D. D., Judge Job Barnard, Commodore Richard G. Davenport, Mr. Ralph P. Barnard, Mr. Wm. M. Beall, Mr. Robert R. Bennett, Dr. G. W. N. Custis, Dr. J. B. G. Custis, Mr. James C. Courts, Dr Ira W. Dennison, Mr. Alfred B. Dent, Mr. Lewis A. Dent, Dr. James M. Flint, U. S. N. (retired), Col. Everett W. Foster, Maj. Thomas M. Gale, Dr. Edwin A. Spencer, Dr. Frank A. Swartout, Mr. J. B. T. Tupper, Mr. William H. Walker, Dr. Walter A. Wells, and Mr. Samuel W. Woodward.

The Dinner Committee was composed of Dr. H. L. E. Johnson, Col. Frederick C. Bryan, Dr. Edward E. Morse, Maj. Duncan C. Phillips, and Mr. Walter C. Clephane.

HISTORICAL SKETCH.

THE General Society of Colonial Wars was organized May 9 and 10, 1893, in the Governor's Room, City Hall, New York City, by delegates from the States of New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Massachusetts, Connecticut, and the District of Columbia.

The representatives of the latter jurisdiction were Mr. Chas. E. Coon, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury; Lieut. T. B. N. Mason, U. S. N., and Mr. Edward S. Hosmer.

For the purpose of considering the organization of a society in the District of Columbia a committee composed of Rear Admiral Francis A. Roe, U. S. N.; Pay-Director James H. Watmouth, U. S. A.; Mr. Charles E. Coon, and Lieut. Richard G. Davenport, U. S. N.; all members of the New York Society, met at the home of Admiral Roe, 1232 Seventeenth Street, N. W., on April 6, 1893.

Admiral Roe took the chair and appointed Lieut. Davenport Secretary and Treasurer, and Mr. Coon, Registrar.

It was determined to organize a local society as soon as a sufficient number of applicants for membership warranted such action.

May 6, 1893, the before-mentioned committee met at the home of Admiral Roe, Lieut. Davenport holding a telegraphic proxy from Pay-Director Watmouth. Organization was deferred until a larger resident membership was secured. "Ye Punch was served."

May 20, 1893, a general meeting of resident members for the purpose of organization was held at the home of Admiral Roe. Present: Admiral Roe, Pay-Director Watmouth, Mr. Charles E. Coon, Lieut. Davenport, Mr. Joseph F. Batchelder, Mr. Edward A. Moseley, Mr. Charles E. Cook, and Rev. Dr. Samuel M. Shute.

Officers elected: Governor, Admiral Roe; Deputy-Governor, Mr. Charles E. Coon; Lieutenant-Governor, Pay-Director James H. Watmouth; Treasurer, Mr. Joseph F. Batchelder; Secretary, Lieut. Richard G. Davenport; Chaplain, Rev. James O. Dorsey (when qualified); Historian, Rev. Dr. Samuel M. Shute; Registrar, Dr. Albert C. Peale.

Gentlemen of the Council: Lieut. T. B. N. Mason, Mr. Edward A. Moseley.

Committee on Membership: Gen. Richard N. Batchelder, U. S. N.; and Mr. Charles E. Cook.

Delegates to the General Assembly: Mr. Charles E. Coon, and Lieut. T. B. N. Mason.

The constitution and by-laws of the New York Society were, with some slight modifications, adopted as the governing rules. Mr. Moseley offered the services of a stenographer and the use of a room in the Interstate Commerce Commission for the Society's meetings, which was now formally organized with these objects: "To aid in preparing and publishing a correct history of the American Colonies now included in the territory belonging to the United States, from the settlement of Jamestown, Va., May 13, 1607, to the Battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775; to commemorate the important events of that period; to perpetuate the memory of the men who in military, naval, and civic positions of trust and responsibility, by their acts and counsel, assisted in the establishment, defense, and preservation of the said American Colonies; and to promote a spirit of loyalty and patriotic devotion to the Nation which they founded."

June 5, 1893, special meeting, Interstate Commerce Commission. Governor Roe presided. Seven members present. Rev. James O. Dorsey, and Maj. Gilbert Thompson elected to membership.

October 5, 1893, Council meeting. The Governor presided. Six members present. Mr. Henry D. Saxton, Mr. Frank B. Smith, and Mr. James B. Johnson elected to membership.

November 13, 1893, Council meeting. Governor Roe presided. Ten members present. Insignia of Society presented for inspection. Mr. Archibald Hopkins, Surg.-Gen. Walter Wyman, Capt. Oscar F. Long, U. S. A.; and Mr. J. William Henry elected to membership.

December 5, 1893, Council meeting. Governor Roe presided. Thirteen members present. Commodore Richard W. Meade, U. S. N.; Mr. G. Brown Goode, and Mr. A. Howard Clark elected to membership.

First General Election: Governor, Admiral Roe; Deputy-Governor, Mr. Charles E. Coon; Lieutenant-Governor, Pay-Director Watmouth; Secretary, Capt. Oscar F. Long; Treasurer, Mr. Joseph F. Batchelder; Registrar, Dr. Albert C. Peale; Historian, Rev. Dr. Samuel M. Shute; Chaplain, Rev. James O. Dorsey; Chancellor, Mr. Archibald Hopkins.

Delegates to the General Assembly: Lieut. T. B. N. Mason, Pay-Director Watmouth, Mr. Charles E. Coon, Surg.-Gen. Wyman, and Mr. Archibald Hopkins.

At the dinner, after the election, Governor Roe specially welcomed those present representing other societies. Toasts were responded to as follows: "The Society of Colonial Wars," by Mr. Charles E. Coon; "The Sons of the Revolution," by Mr. Albion K. Parris; "The Sons of the American Revolution," by Gen. J. C. Breckenridge, U. S. A.; "The War of 1812," by Gen. A. W. Greeley, U. S. A. Rev. Dr. Samuel M. Shute represented the Society of the Cincinnati.

December 19, 1893, the Society met at the Corcoran Hotel commemorative of the 289th anniversary of "Ye Direful Swamp Fight in King Philip's War." Governor Roe presided. Seventeen members present. Mr. Arthur Keith, and Mr. George C. Maynard elected to membership.

Delegates to the General Assembly: Gen. Richard N. Batchelder, Pay-Director Watmouth, Mr. Charles E. Coon, Surg.-Gen. Wyman, and Mr. Archibald Hopkins.

Thus far I have recounted in brief detail the transactions of the Society and Council from the date of organization, May 20, 1893, to December 19, 1893.

Time will not permit such a minute presentation of the proceedings for the remaining years of our existence, so that I shall hereafter group the actions of the Society and Council by years, it being understood that the Society's year begins with the election of officers in December and continues until the election of their successors in December following.

1893-'94, Admiral Roe, Governor. Elected to membership: Mr. Joseph C. Hardie, Mr. Charles W. Haskins, Mr. William S. Knox, Mr. George A. Batchelder, Mr. Charles F. T. Beale, Dr. James C. Merrill, U.
